Invitation: 7th European Pottery Festival in Annaberg-Buchholz 2021

For the seventh time since 1992, the festival of the European potters is to take place in the capital of the Erzgebirge – in the picturesque alleys of the old town of Annaberg.

We cordially invite you to take part in this event from August 6-8, 2021. It will be organized and carried out by our association. We would be pleased if you would consider these dates in your annual planning for next year.

The motto of the pottery prize is "The blemish on beauty". The submitted works of the participants will be shown in a special exhibition and evaluated by the public and a jury of experts.

More information and the application form can be found on our website:
<http://www.altstadtfreunde-annaberg.eu>.

If you are interested, please send us your application, if possible in digital form, by 30 September 2020 at the latest. Please use the number which is shown in this email. We will use it to record all interested participants and send you concrete contract documents with all details after the selection. Until then, please consider the application as non-binding. Please also attach some pictures of your work.

You are also welcome to visit our newly created Facebook page, <https://www.facebook.com/ToepferfestAnnaberg21/>, which will gradually be filled with more content.

We would be grateful if you would also mention our festival to other potters, ceramists and freelance artists.

If you have any questions or suggestions, please contact us by email at:
info@altstadtfreunde-annaberg.eu.

We look forward to a great pottery festival.

With kind regards from the Erzgebirge
